

Stedman's Medical Terminology

Steps to Success in Medical Language

Chapter 7: Cardiovascular and Lymphatic Systems

Across

2. Twisted, swollen veins
6. Buildup of plaque or fatty paste which hardens the artery walls
7. Abbreviation for magnetic resonance imaging
8. Pertaining to a pulse
9. Combining form meaning "fatty, paste"
12. Dilation of an artery; usually due to a weakness in the wall of the artery
13. Abbreviation for arteriosclerotic heart disease
14. Evaluates levels of cholesterol, HDL, LDL, and triglycerides
15. Nuclear medicine technique used to assess ventricular function by producing an image of a beating heart
16. A small artery
22. Vascular blockage made up of a thrombus, bacteria, air, plaque, and/or other foreign material
24. Drug used to lower cholesterol levels
25. Pertaining to a lack of blood flow
26. Middle, muscular layer of heart tissue
27. Use of defibrillation or drugs to restore the heart's normal rhythm
29. In coarctation of the aorta, the aorta is ____

Down

1. Surgical repair of a valve
3. Enlargement of the heart
4. Condition of a rapid, fast heart beat
5. Term used to describe a sudden arrhythmia, such as an atrial tachycardia
10. Inner lining of the heart
11. Hardening of the arteries
13. Heart valve between the left ventricle and the aorta
17. Suffix meaning "stretching, dilation"
18. Hollow mesh tube designed to keep a vessel open or patent
19. Clear fluid consisting of white blood cells and red blood cells that accumulates in the tissue
20. The two upper receiving chambers of the heart: the right and left ____
21. Process of recording a blood vessel
23. Condition or state of having a blood clot
28. Meaning of the combining form "phleb/o"